

TURKEY MEDIA ANALYST

A United States Government organization in Ankara, Turkey is looking to recruit a full-time officer to review, analyze, translate, and summarize content from Turkish-language textual and broadcast sources for use by the US Government.

Duties will include coverage of media developments and breaking news, written analysis of mainstream and social media, production of translations and multimedia, web content management, and research. The position will occasionally involve working evenings, weekends, and holidays.

Qualifications:

- Knowledge of Turkish and Kurdish current affairs and media (degree-level or equivalent).
- Working fluency in Turkish and/or Kurdish languages and the ability to translate into English from one or more of these languages.
- Able to write insightful reports and analyses on regional topics of current interest in clear grammatical English.
- Strong technical skills and knowledge of social media, web content management and digital media tools.
- Self-motivated individual with proven team working skills and flexibility.

This position offers career opportunities, competitive salary and benefits package, including paid holidays, life insurance, and private health plan.

Starting salary: 74,000-90,000 Turkish Lira per annum subject to experience.

Please apply by e-mail to AnkaraApplications@state.gov by 12 September 2015.

The subject line of the email should read "Turkey Media Analyst" and you must include the following in English:

- Cover letter identifying how you meet the above qualifications and clearly stating your interest, qualifications and language expertise.
- CV (Please note that as an equal opportunity employer, we ask that you do not include your gender, race, religion, date of birth, age, marital/family status within your CV.)
- Scanned documentation in support of your legal right to work in Turkey, e.g. work or residency permits, in accordance with the local law. (Please note that all ordinarily resident applicants must have the required work and/or residency permits to be eligible for consideration.)

The candidates who are fully qualified and are shortlisted will be notified within 21 days of the closing date. Shortlisted candidates will be invited for a test and interview. These candidates will be tested on language proficiency, current affairs, and analysis-writing.

Applicants selected for an interview will travel at their own expense.